

Bailer Boring Hand Auger Set

Bailer Boring Hand Auger Set for drilling above and below the water table to a depth of 7 meters.

A complete boring set for exploratory soil augering and sampling, particularly suitable for use in nature reserves or water catchment areas

Advantages

- Suitable for most soils as a very comprehensive set
- Works above and below water level
- For well installation as well as samplings as reach required depth very quickly
- Extremely durable, sturdy light weight casings
- Bailing-platform allows pushing casings down
- Special bailers allow bailing stony sand layers
- Non-contaminating components
- Cost effective.

Disadvantages

- Not suitable for hard soils with a high content of stones or gravel.

Accessories

- Left hand screw thread casing tubes in different diameters (90mm, 125mm & 160mm)
- Casing tube clamps
- Steel lifting caps, synthetic thread protectors, steel casing heads for 125mm casing tubes
- Tripod.

Specifications

- No contaminating components
- ABS plastic casing tubes
- Steel ends
- Fast coupling with special left hand threading.